Preface

God speaks to his peoples from time to time through His anointed spokes person with words of encouragement, reproves, commands, warnings, the condition of the world, state of the sinners and direction for what He wants his people to do, (“His will”) and how to live. In this act alone, He demonstrates His concern for all His plans for his children as He is trying to lead them into performing and living according to His will. He verbalizes His plans through many different ways and one of them is through His holy servants. These men and women in various situations prophecy for God, revealing His plan to His people, be it an individual, small group, a large congregation or to multitudes.

However, God in His dealing with people to execute his will, He constantly expresses his concern as to how people hears what the Spirit has to say unto the Churches, which are those who has repented, confessed their sins, washed in the blood of Jesus and cleansed from all unrighteousness. God also gives prophetic utterances to address anyone He need contact (sinner or saint) regarding his plans on an individual bases, as well as He may deal with a nations well-being or speak on a global platform.

How we “hear” the Word and messages of the Lord, can and will determine how one follows Him, have fellowship with Him, are lead by Him, doing “His Will” and fulfilling His will for their lives. All throughout the bible, we find references as to “HOW” we hear the Word. As pertaining to “Hearing the Word”, our “perception” includes, but not limited to “insight”, and “doing” – “living” the Word will establish on as being lead of the Lord and obeying the will of God.

The bible, (the “Word”) has numerous scripture verses regarding hearing the Spirit in both the New & Old Testaments, as it speaks unto the people of God. In the New Testament, it addresses the Church, (the Body of Christ- His people). In countless prophecies the term “Behold, I will speak and say unto thee my people,” saith God,” clearly states the God is communicating directly with His people through His Spirit.

“He that hath ears to hear let him hear what the Spirit has to say unto the Church”, (Revelation 2:17 | View whole chapter | See verse in context) expresses “HOW” one may pay attention to what the Spirit of God is telling them. We need acknowledge the Word of God and its’ ultimate life changing power... For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart Hebrews 4:12 | View whole chapter | See verse in context

“Hearken Unto My Word,” Saith God

He that hath ears to hear let him hear what the Spirit has to say unto the Church

“For behold I will speak and say unto thee my people. Have ye not an ear and hear not? Know ye not my voice, saith God. Yea for in days gone by, have I not said that he that has an ear, hear what the Spirit has to say unto the Church?

But ye have turned a death ear unto me, saith God. Yea many of ye have drawn back, yea, ye have fallen and my soul has no pleasure in them that draw back. And why would ye? Why would ye turn again to the elements of this world, saith God?

Have ye not ears, have ye not heard, that the friendship of this world is enmity with thy God? Love not the world, touch not, taste not, for all are to perish with the using, saith God. Come from amongst them, saith God, and touch not the unclean thing. Yea, behold I, even I the Lord thy God will receive you, yea even you, and I will be a father unto you and you shall be my sons and daughters, saith God.

Know ye not that I am your God, and I do love thee with an everlasting love. Why tempt ye my love? Why? Why? Art thou stronger than I? Can thou fight against my love and win? Nay, have ye not known my love for thee? Know ye not that I sent my Son. Yea I gave my Son, because with an out-stretched are I love thee, saith God.

Now turn at my reproof, and let thy wounds be healed. Lift up thy hanged down heads and be thou ever lifted up, saith God. Hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, and see. Yea, set thy paths straight and I, even I shall lead thee. I shall show thee the way, but thou must hearken unto my voice, hearken, saith God, hearken.

For behold. These are the times of wickedness and evil, saith God. Yea the enemy has entered into thy camp. Even into the house to spoil thy goods. To steal to kill and even to destroy, saith God. But Why? Why would ye open a door unto thine enemy?

Behold, thou hast played the harlot, and has gone after strange gods. Ye even make lies thy refuge. “IDOLS,” saith God. Have ye set up and ye thrust me back, and reject my Spirit, saith God.

And where will ye flee? To the mountain? Behold, I am there. Even if ye make thine bed in Hell, I am there. Where can you run from the presence of thy God? Where? Where? Have ye not ears to hear. Turn not a death ear unto me. Saith God. Will ye mock me? Will ye provoke me to anger, saith God. Turn at my reproof that I may rejoice to build thee up.

Yea, I do delight in building thee up. Have ye not read that it is my good pleasure to give thee the kingdom? But, if thou will not follow me, then I will turn and fight against thee with the sword of my mouth, saith God. And behold, I will cut thee off, yea suddenly, and that without a remedy.

Turn ye, yea hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God. Turn and hearken. I have an everlasting covenant with thee, and I will hasten to perform my word concerning thee. For my covenant is not slack s man count slackness, saith God. But I hasten to perform my word and it shall be preformed. Yea it shall come to pass. And thou, even thee shall see it with thine own eyes.

He that hath ears to hear let him hear what the Spirit has to say unto the Church

Revelation 2:17 | View whole chapter
| See verse in context

Therefore, I say take heed to thyself. Take heed, yea examine thyself and see whether thy be in the faith. Know ye not that the Spirit of God dwell in thee except ye be reprobates? Know ye not if any man defile my temple, him shall I destroy. For the temple of God is Holy which temple ye are? And ye are bought with a price.

Therefore, glorify God in your body and in the spirit, which are Gods’. There for hearken, saith God. Hearken, saith God. Hearken. He that has an ear, let him hear, saith God.

. To steal to kill and ea even to destroy, saith God. But Why? Why would ye open a door unto thine enemy?
